Availa Bank to Open Branch in Denison

Carroll, Iowa (November 2020) – Availa Bank, Carroll, Iowa announced today that they will be opening a new branch location at 1217 Broadway in Denison, Iowa on December 1st, 2020.

Availa President and CEO, Jeff Scharfenkamp, stated “Availa is a longstanding Iowa Bank with roots dating back to 1870. We are excited about the opportunity to expand our footprint and serve the community of Denison. Availa is dedicated to providing comprehensive banking products with the highest level of service to our customers. We look forward to fostering new relationships in the Denison area and we are committed to providing our customers with competitive products, great social distancing options, and outstanding customer service.” Scharfenkamp stated that Wesley Nordquist, a current Availa Bank Vice President-Loan officer and resident of Denison, would be relocating from the Carroll office to the new Denison location. Nordquist states “Availa Bank is a community bank with local decision-makers. I am excited to be in Denison and look forward to building working relationships with new customers and with the Denison community.”

Nordquist has been with Availa Bank for 6 years and has worked out of both the Council Bluffs and Carroll branches. Wes and his wife Brooke Wehle Nordquist, along with their son William, recently moved to Denison.
